New Monday stories at Main Library

NEWTON—Evening story time is back in Newton.

Richard Griffin, Youth Services librarian at Catawba County Library, will initiate weekly story times for young children beginning at 6:30 p.m. Monday, June 9. The evening story time will enable working families to visit the library together and enjoy stories with their young children.

The Monday evening programs will continue through July 14 to determine the level of interest, Griffin said.

Other county library branches host weekly story times as follows:

NEWTON—10 a.m. Thursdays

CLAREMONT—3 p.m. Wednesdays

CONOVER—4:30 p.m. Wednesdays

MAIDEN—9:30 a.m. Wednesdays (toddlers), 10 a.m. (preschool)

ST. STEPHENS—10 a.m. Thursdays

SHERRILLS FORD—10 a.m. Wednesdays

SOUTHWEST—10 a.m. Thursdays

Children's story times represent a concerted effort by the county library system's to familiarize youngsters with books and help to prepare them for school. The library has more than 68,000 registered users, many of them children.
